A BRIEF PROFILE OF THE COLLEGE

Wangcha Rajkumar Government College (Formerly Tirap Government College), the premier institute of higher learning in Tirap and Longding districts has completed its excellent journey of 22 years.

The college had a humble beginning in the year 1997 at Charju, Khonsa before being shifted to its present location. Historically, it has a record in pioneering higher education in Patkai region of Arunachal and fulfils the long cherished desire of the people of this area. The college has been renamed, from the earlier "Tirap Government College" to existing "Wangcha Rajkumar Government College" by the Government in memory of late Wangcha Rajkumar, a renowned public leader; former Lok Sabha M.P. and AICC member (vide GO No, ED/HE/1291/08 dated 12th June 2008). It is situated about ten minutes walk from the main town of Deomali, a sub-division of Tirap District. The college has, of course, expanded and changed over the last many years but it has always maintained its principle to be an institution for imparting value-based education and to nurture academic confidence and excellence.

The campus and nearby village of Kailashpur (the vibrant Shiva temple) and Rang Sum Hum provide a welcoming community atmosphere complimented by the proximity and obvious attractions of not only various picnic spots but also to nearby places like Khonsa, Tupi, Longding, Dibrugarh, Tinsukia, Duliajan, Digboi, among other towns. The nearest railway station is Naharkatia (18 Kilometres approx.) and the nearest airport is at Mohanbari, Dibrugarh (72 Kilometres approx.). The towns of Tinsukia and Dibrugarh are at easy distance for marketing. The College provides a liberal, lively and competitive environment enabling students to carve out a niche for themselves in their chosen arenas. The strength of the College lies in its congenial and enriching atmosphere, which plays a crucial role in maintaining the excellent record the College. Scores of students who have been groomed in this College have excelled in different walks of life, with the years spent in the College providing them a solid foundation on which they crafted their successes.
